

Serving Through our Spiritual Gifts

Have you ever wondered about why you love reading but dislike speaking in front of a group, working on a mission project but not teaching vacation bible school, leading a project but not hanging out in a coffee klatch? These are my questions but regardless of your wondering, it's time to answer that "I Wonder" question.

We are offering a Spiritual Gifts Workshop where you will have an opportunity to identify your spiritual gifts and how to apply these gifts to your personal faith journey and effectively support our church community.

The granting of spiritual gifts is two-fold in purpose – personal and congregational. On the personal side, the gifts we are given enable us to serve through the uniqueness God granted at our creation. On the congregational side it enables us to work for the common good as we live in the interconnectedness of relationships in the body of Christ.

Spiritual gifts are given by God through the holy spirit and each gift is given for a purpose – that of strengthening our unity and living in relationship with one another for the common good.

Serving from giftedness enables each individual to serve with passion, clarity and dedication instead of saying yes out of obligation when choosing to serve.
